From the Pastor's Office

Easter Sunday

A funny thing about Easter Sunday, I always associate it with sunny days. I guess I have imbibed the spirit of the Resurrection. Today our motto should be "Don't worry, be happy." There are a lot of happy people around today. A whole bunch of nice people joined our St. Catherine's Church last night. They are now officially Catholics. They have spent the last year faithfully going to Catechism class to learn all about the Catholic faith. Jesus is Risen from the dead. I have also risen from my death. I remember when I went to college to study English literature. The Professor began talking about the willing suspension of Disbelief. I had no idea what he was talking about. Then he showed us. You go to a movie and you kind of get into it. You hope the hero survives. You hope they arrest the baddies. Then the movie concludes and the lights go on. You return to your real life. We allow ourselves to get involved in the story. We root for the good guys and we want the bad guys to go to jail. We have been doing that this past Holy Week. We started on Holy Thursday and the mood in our Church changed. Things get very serious and solemn. By Good Friday we were a mess of tears and emotions. Holy Saturday was a long empty day. Then Easter Sunday came and everywhere the sun is shining. We have put ourselves through a spiritual wringer. Unfortunately, now that Holy Week has passed does that mean we return to our day job again? Now that Easter is over, Summer cannot be far behind. Time to think of vacations and trips. Surely that is the next thing. We must not allow our liturgical Feast days to become distant memories. Hopefully, every one of us was moved to reflect on the events of Holy Week and Easter. Maybe I want to renew my faith. Maybe I want to deepen my relationship with the Lord Jesus. Maybe there is time for some prayer in my life after all. I hope that I do not leave Holy Week and Easter out on the field. Let me imbibe the spiritual richness of the season. Hopefully, my faith becomes intensified because I stood in front of Calvary. I stood in front of the empty tomb. Am I just a spiritual tourist gazing at the sights, or am I on an actual pilgrimage? Is it time for the gift shop?

With love,
Fr. Pat

- Do not bring children to the workshop
- In-person EIM Workshops are for new applicants only. Members needing a renewal must complete the refresher through their VIRTUS.org account.

If you need assistance, please contact Evelyn Amador at evelyn.amador@stcatherine-austin.org or (512) 892-2420.

Liturgy

Divine Mercy Sunday, April 27

Divine Mercy Sunday was established by Pope Saint John Paul II in the year 2000. The feast, which falls on the Second Sunday of Easter, recognizes the abundant mercy offered to us through Jesus. John Paul II understood the Resurrection as the “miracle of mercy” which “radically changed humanity’s destiny.” At St. Catherine of Siena, we will celebrate on Sunday, April 27, at 2:30 p.m. in the church with adoration, scripture, silent prayer, benediction and the singing of the Chaplet of Divine Mercy – all in just over an hour! All are welcome.

The Liturgy Office wishes to offer humble and wholehearted thanks to all members of the Liturgical Ministries who so graciously gave of their time and talents to bring enhanced beauty, grace and hospitality to our liturgical celebrations through Lent, Holy Week and Easter:

- Art & Environment and Floral Ministry
- All who moved the Sanctuary Crosses
- Mass Coordinators, Ushers, Captains, Eucharistic Ministers, Lectors, Choirs, Cantors and Musicians, and Altar Servers
- The Altar Linen Ministry, and
- All who cared for and cleaned the Sanctuary

May our risen Lord bless you always, especially in this season of Resurrection joy!

Liturgical Ministers!

Do you know your EIM (Ethics and Integrity in Ministry) anniversary date? All members of liturgical ministries (including Mass Coordinators, Ushers & Hospitality, Lectors, Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion, Psalmists, Cantors, Musicians and Choir Members) over 18 years of age must remain in compliance with this Diocesan program as a required part of their service in the parish ministry. If you are new to the EIM process, please go to www.virtusonline.org to learn how to create an account and sign up for a workshop. If you have any questions, please reach out to the EIM Office at eim@austindiocese.org or (512) 949-2447. You can also contact Evelyn, evelyn.amador@stcatherine-austin.org, in the parish office, if you need assistance.

Preschool Ministries

Preparing Our Hearts for Easter at St. Catherine's Preschool

As we approach the end of Lent, our preschoolers are spending time learning about the Easter story and just how much God loves each of us. While we see many signs of spring—bunnies, chicks, and colorful eggs—we're helping our children understand the true meaning of Easter.

Easter is a time to rejoice in the miraculous story of Jesus—how He died on the cross for our sins and rose again three days later. It's because of His great sacrifice and God's unending love that we are offered the gift of eternal life. We encourage you to continue these conversations at home:

- Read a faith-based Easter story together
- Sing simple songs that celebrate Jesus
- Talk about what Easter really means—and tell your child how much you love Jesus, too!

At St. Catherine's Preschool, we believe play is essential to how children learn and grow. In our classrooms, children discover God's love through joyful play while building the foundational skills needed for success in school and life. Currently, we have a waitlist for most of our classes. Learn more about our program at www.stcatherine-austin.org/preschool.

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd (CGS)

Our preschoolers also participate in Catechesis of the Good Shepherd, a Montessori-based religious formation that provides a sacred, hands-on environment—called an atrium—where children can ponder and celebrate the mysteries of our faith through scripture and liturgy.

Volunteer Opportunity – Become a Catechist

We are seeking volunteer catechists for the upcoming school year. If you feel called to help guide young children in their spiritual journey and can offer a few hours one morning a week, we would love to have you join us. Contact Camille Parker at camille.parker@stcatherine-austin.org to learn more. Additional information on CGS can be at www.cgsusa.org.

Family Ministries

Ministry of Mothers Sharing (MOMS)

All mothers are invited to join MOMS 42, a book study that brings together all mothers to connect with each other and our faith in the vocation of motherhood. This beloved tradition at St. Catherine of Siena includes a nine-week book study on Wednesday evenings and a Celebration dinner in August. Orientation will be held on Wednesday, June 4, at 7:00 p.m. Cost is $50 and scholarships are available. To attend, register online at stcatherine-austin.org/moms. For information, contact Danielle Nepustil at danielle.nepustil@stcatherine-austin.org.
